MEDIA STATEMENT

Three Have Become One

Three California based claims investigation companies have merged recently, creating one of the State's largest investigation companies. Capital Investigations, Commercial Claims Solutions, and JLC Investigations have merged to create Capital Claims Services (Capital).

"By combining the talents of our staff I am confident we will succeed in surpassing our customers expectations on service," said Bill Randall, president of Capital. On speaking about the three principles, Mr. Randall said "Though we each bring something different to the table, we have all held SIU and Claims Management positions within the insurance industry. We know what our customers expect because we have all sat in their chairs. It is this unique experience that sets us apart from our competition."

The merger brings Mr. Randall together with Paul Conway, former president and CEO of Commercial Claims Solutions, along with Tim Cloney, former President and CEO of JLC Investigations. Mr. Conway has been in the industry for over 22 years where he has held various positions, including director of the special investigation unit for both a national insurer and an international third party administrator. Mr. Cloney has almost 20 years experience in the industry, where he has held various management positions specializing in the fraud arena. All three individuals are accomplished speakers on the issues of insurance investigations, claims and coverage issues, and anti-fraud matters.
